

Gold Country Cutting Horse Association
Newsletter – February 2015

Hi everyone,

Looks like our 2015 season is upon us. Our year is shaping up to be a great season. Hopefully everyone has been getting ready to come and join the Board of Directors and me at our first show of the year on March 1st, hosted by Kim Aikens at Lincoln Crossings in Lincoln (Dave Miller Ranch). We will have new sand in the indoor arena to match the sand in the outdoor pen. The indoor pen will become Pen #1. We will be running two pens for this show if weather permits. We will have a flag for anyone to use. We also have a new caterer for our food.

After our first club show, we will be hosting a 3 day NCHA show at the Red Bluff Fairgrounds on March 27-29, 2015. We will have two show pens, a practice pen and a flag set up. There are 200 permanent stalls, and the old stalls have all been remodeled and mats placed in them. Cattle will be supplied by Romaine and Detar. Do not delay in getting your stall requests in to our show secretary as they are first come, first served. Get your entries in early too. Look for more info in the upcoming flyer.

We will be hosting another NCHA show on June 4-6, 2015. It will be held at Rancho Murieta in the outside pen. We will have a practice pen and a flag set up. We will also hold 4-year-old and 5/6 year old classes on Thursday and Friday (4th and 5th). This is not a misprint. We moved our show back one day and PCCHA moved their aged event in Vegas forward 2 days, so as not to conflict. This show will also be hosting the Purina series, so Amateurs and Non Pros let's gear up!

Our club shows are posted on our website, and you can follow us on Facebook for the most current info.

Saddles will again be given at the year's end to the winners of the classes.

Come and join us for the 2015 show season! You won't want to miss another awesome year!

Thank you to our Board of Directors for their hard work and professionalism in the approach to these shows.

Sincerely,

Lee
